All Flowers In Time

SYNOPSIS

"I am not from this place" declares a French cowboy. An old toothless man asks, "Do you know why you're here?". These shape shifting personalities infect young children with an evil signal in the form of a Dutch TV show. The red eyed girls and boys believe they can now become other people and monsters much to their delight.

JONATHAN CAOUCETTE

DIRECTOR, WRITER & EDITOR AND ACTOR

Born and raised in Houston, Texas, Jonathan Caouette has been making films since he was 8 years old. Inspired by his relationship to his mentally ill mother, his debut feature film, Tarnation, premiered at the 2004 Sundance Film Festival and went on to the 2004 Cannes Film Festival: Director's Fortnight, followed by the Toronto, Chicago, New York, London, and Los Angeles Independent film festivals. The film was executive produced by Gus Van Sant and John Cameron Mitchell.

Jonathan's documentary All Tomorrow's Parties (2009), about the "All Tomorrow's Parties" Festivals in England, was selected for seventeen international film festivals and won the LA Weekly's "Critics Pick" at the Los Angeles Film Festival. The film stars Patti Smith, Iggy Pop, Belle And Sebastian, The Gossip, and Nick Cave.

All Flowers in Time has begun its festival journey by winning the Grand Prix Canal+ for best short film at L'Étrange Festival in Paris.
